CHARLES McPHERSON, colored, charged J. D. McFarland in the Police Court this morning with assaulting him when he attempted to enter McFarland's saloon. The latter in turn preferred a charge against McPherson. Both cases were dismissed.

The Teachers' Decreased Salaries. The teachers of the first school division held a meeting last night to take action in regard to the proposed reduction of 3.2 per cent. on their salaries. They say they object to salaries fixed by law being reduced to those of series of teachers of higher grades. The decrease seems to mean a reduction from $40 to $80 per month. At last night's meeting two propositions were made: Either to protest against the plan of the trustees or to refuse to sign the pay-roll. The meeting adjourned, however, without coming to any conclusion.
